

STUDENT GOVERNOR

Beck Grey

Hello everyone!

I'm Beck and I would love to be your next Student Governor. I'm a second-year illustration student and I love printmaking, dogs, and climbing. I've loved my time at LAU thus far, so would like to be more involved with the behind-the-scenes aspects of the university. I am grounded, passionate, and stubborn when I need to be - all of which I think are useful qualities when representing the student voice.

I'm approachable and I would love to talk to you all to get to know you and your views of the university so I can stay in touch with the views of the student body. I already have done some work within the Union, and am a Student Ambassador so have worked with the university itself as well, with experience that would help me within the role.

As Governor, I want to be a voice for the students. I'm passionate about this university and I will do my best to ensure students have plenty of opportunity to share their passion too. I will hold regular events to gather students in a relaxed atmosphere where everyone feels able to share their views and experiences of the university, so I can keep communications open between the students and those in charge of decision-making at the university. Ensuring the students are always at the forefront of every decision.

I will also do my best to stand up for the students and make any changes I or others believe necessary to better LAU, whether that is in more formal meetings, informal chats with staff and other students, or the wider community. I will remain dedicated to working closely with the Union and the university, as I value the responsibility of this role.

I hope you consider voting for me!
