

STUDENT PRESIDENT

Liv Best

Hey there, I'm Liv, a graduating student in graphic design at Leeds Arts and I'm delighted to be running for the role of representing student voices as president.

In my spare time I enjoy activities like rock climbing, crafting, printing, and jewellery making, which I love sharing with friends to foster creative rejuvenation.

As a neurodivergent individual and member of the LGBTQ+ community, I aim to amplify the voices of these communities, recognizing the diverse spectrum within our university and promoting intersectionality.

I strongly advocate for creative and mental well-being within our university, essential for students to thrive. Utilising my background in event design, I intend to organise a range of activities that cater to a wide scope of interests, ensuring students' well-being and cultivating a calming atmosphere within the university and its union. Additionally, I plan to host inclusive study sessions, providing a non-judgmental space for students to catch up on their work.

Acknowledging the financial strains students face, especially in today's challenging economy, I propose hosting sustainable swaps to build a stronger community and making connections with local businesses to secure discounts and savings for students whenever possible.

As I prepare to graduate, it's crucial to me that budding artists and entrepreneurs have opportunities for networking and publicity. I aspire to empower emerging creatives by offering weekly spotlights and facilitating avenues to showcase and sell their work through market stalls both on campus and in local establishments.

With your support, I aim to create an approachable and inclusive environment within the union where every voice is welcomed and encouraged to express freely. Your vote will enable me to champion the diverse interests and needs of our student body, making Leeds Arts a vibrant and supportive community for all.
